The Roswell Lavender Festival at Barrington Hall

June 8, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Join us at Barrington Hall as we celebrate our 3rd annual Roswell Lavender Festival on the grounds of Barrington Hall. Ms. Evelyn Simpson, one of the last King family descendants to live at Barrington Hall, made and sold lavender wands which were created from lavender grown on the property. We celebrate Ms. Simpson and continue her tradition with our signature festival. Come and experience all things lavender. It's a full day of lavender recipe samples, music, exhibits, children's activities, crafts demonstrations, vendors and lots of fun. Admission is free.

Life in the 1860s Living History Weekend

June 22 & 23, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Come to Barrington Hall to see a reenactment of life in Roswell in the 1860s. There will be re-enactors in civilian and military clothing. Demonstrations of period cooking, music and dance. There will also be a military encampment. We will host a number of presentations in our carriage house on topics such as 1860s clothing and fashion, parlor games and etiquette, a presentation of Civil War era flags, 1860s photography, etc. There will also be a number of child related activities. Please call 770-640-3855 for information. Free!
