PROJECT OVERVIEW

Big Creek Parkway will be a new 2-lane roadway across GA-400 from Warsaw Road to Old Alabama Road. It will include two new bridges over GA-400 and Big Creek and improvements to Old Holcomb Bridge Road.

The goal of the Big Creek Parkway project is to provide an alternative to the Holcomb Bridge interchange for travelers going between east and west Roswell. The new road will also include a sidewalk and bicycle path to make walking and biking more convenient in the area.

Project Cost: $58.5 million
